Discipline Policy

Al-Baqir Centre

Reviewed on: 1st September 2026

Introduction:

The Behaviour Policy of Al-Baqir Centre outlines the expectations, guidelines, and procedures for student behaviour within the Centre's premises. Rooted in the teachings of Islam, this policy aims to foster a positive, respectful, and conducive learning environment that promotes the well-being and academic success of all students while embodying Islamic values.

Behaviour Expectations:

All students at Al-Baqir Centre are expected to embody Islamic values, including:

1. Taqwa (Consciousness of Allah): Demonstrate mindfulness of Allah ﷻ in their actions, speech, and interactions, striving to please Him ﷻ in all endeavours.
2. Adab (Respect and Courtesy): Treat fellow students, staff, and visitors with respect, kindness, and consideration, mirroring the noble character of the Beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ
3. Shukr (Gratitude): Express gratitude to Allah ﷻ and others for blessings and opportunities.

Prohibited Behaviours:

In addition to the expectations rooted in Islamic values, the following behaviours are strictly prohibited within the Centre's premises:

1. Bullying and Harassment: Engaging in any form of bullying, harassment, or intimidation contradicts the teachings of Islam and will not be tolerated.
2. Disruption: Disruptive behaviour that hinders the learning of others or the Centre's functioning.
3. Dishonesty: Cheating, plagiarism, lying, or any form of dishonesty.
4. Vandalism: Damaging property of the madrassah or any other students will financially be reimbursed by the perpetrator.
5. Substance Abuse: The use of drugs, alcohol, vapes, or any other intoxicants.
6. Violence: Any form of physical, verbal, emotional abuse.

Consequences:

Violations of the Behaviour Policy may result in disciplinary actions, aligned with Islamic principles of justice and rehabilitation, including:

1. Counselling and Guidance: Providing guidance to help students recognise and rectify their behaviour.
2. Restitution: Encouraging students to make amends for their actions.
3. Reflection and Repentance: Encouraging sincere reflection and seeking forgiveness from Allah ﷻ.

4. Parent/Guardian Involvement: Involving parents or guardians to collectively address any issues that arise.

Suspension or Probation:

In cases of continued misconduct, temporary suspension or probation may be considered to facilitate behaviour improvement.

Positive Reinforcement:

Al-Baqir Centre recognises and encourages positive behaviour. This includes commendations, awards, and acknowledgment of virtuous conduct.

Modification of Policy:

Al-Baqir Centre retains the right to modify or update this Behaviour Policy as needed, in harmony with Islamic teachings. Changes will be communicated through our official channels.

By enrolling a student at Al-Baqir Centre, parents and guardians acknowledge their understanding and agreement to uphold the Islamic values and the terms and conditions outlined in this Behaviour Policy.
